The Constitution.

ATLANTA, GA., APRIL 3, 1879.

LOTUS BELL wants to hear the jingle of silver.Chicago has joined the reform procession.Sr. Lotus elects a democratic council and a majority of the house of delegates.Casson, of Michigan, is one of the invited. There seems to be no remedy for him.JONES PORG will be greatly vexed at the decision of the court-martial in the Fitz-John Porter case.THE general debate in the house will close to-morrow at three o'clock. After that all orations will be limited to five minutes.Mr. HOAR's "revolutionary" resolution was laid on the table. The rules of the Senate ought to be revised so that Hoar himself could be laid under the table.Turdemocratic senators have concluded to retain in service several aged retainers of the Senate, and some crippled Union soldiers.A SENSATION was introduced and referred in the Senate yesterday looking to the appointment of a commission to make a treaty with Mexico.THE democratic members of the house standing committees have already been placed, and the full committees will be announced by Speaker Randall next Monday or Tuesday.GREAT BRITAIN is becoming alarmed at the decrease in her exports to the United States. The outlook is said by those who are interested in the carrying trade to be exceedingly gloomy.WILLIAMS, of Wisconsin, said in the house yesterday that all government rests ultimately on the bayonet. The woods of Wisconsin are so full of asses that some of them have to be sent to congress.ONE would think that even Mr. Hayes and John Sherman would tire of such battle as Corbin after awhile, but it seems they do not. They have just nominated the fellow to be chief justice of the supreme court of Utah.RUMON, which is about the size of Johnson county, yesterday elected her state officers by a larger republican majority than last year. Some of the factory hands were probably compelled by their employers to vote twice.THE general feeling among senators does not seem to be in the direction of general legislation. This feeling seems also to prevail in the house, and it is not at all likely that any serious attempt will be made to transact any business after the appropriation bills are disposed of.THE new ten-dollar certificates are not a legal tender, nor can they be held by the banks as a part of their reserve, but these drawbacks do not seem to keep the people from buying them. Considerable orders for them have already been received at the treasury. Small-sized bonds are the bonds for the times.

THE Police Question.

There is no little talk in the city over the recent election held by the police commissioners and their action in the premises; but we have not heard a single man say that the new force is inferior to the old one. It is admitted on all sides that the new men are competent to discharge their duties, and the belief prevails that they will.The country cannot afford to let the new force stand idly by, or otherwise, after an actual election of a senator by the legislature. The minority contend that an "original vacancy" can be filled the same as any other. The question comes before the Senate unopposed by precedents, for they are just about balanced. It should be decided without regard to Mr.
Hoar's party relations. Nothing is to be grimed by making him a martyr.

Tamm, a sailor, of having killed Mr. Thomas Hooke, a sailor kept and killed Mr. Thomas Webster, who had threatened to a preliminary examination. According to his statement to the police, Mrs. Thomas was murdered by a man named Clark while Webster was temporarily absent. On her return to the house, Clark, by threats, compelled her to leave, and he then took the deposit on the house and removed the valances. Everything but the furniture had been taken away from the house, and they had a wagon at the door to receive the furniture, had nothing to do but wait for Webster and inform him what Mrs. Thomas was. Thereupon Webster decamped to Ireland, agreeing with Clark that they would go to America together as soon as he could get passage.
